

Diversity & Inclusivity Scholarship Application

In an effort to grow a more racially, ethnically and culturally diverse student body (including LGBTQ families and students), The Denver Waldorf School provides needs-based scholarships to qualified students and their families. The scholarships are open to all students (Pre-K through 12th grades) applying to or attending DWS. The number of scholarships and the amount granted will be determined based on applicant need and available funds each academic year.

Applications for the 2018–19 school year are due by March 1, 2018.

Qualifications:

- student belongs to a racial, ethnic or cultural group that has been historically underrepresented at The Denver Waldorf School
- student must have completed the full enrollment process and have no outstanding tuition due
- family demonstrates financial need as determined by TADS
- commitment to Waldorf education as evidenced by past enrollment or, for new families, a pre-enrollment interview

Recipients and/or their families are expected to demonstrate the following:

- a strong commitment to The Denver Waldorf School through volunteerism and participation in fundraising, events and activities
- a written thank you note, a sample of school work and a brief description on how Waldorf education has impacted the student
- good academic standing
- strong attendance record

How to Apply:

1. Apply and be accepted at The Denver Waldorf School
2. Complete online application with TADS Financial Aid Assessment: mytads.com
3. Submit scholarship application (reverse of this form) to Brooke Camfield, Registrar, via email (registrar@denverwaldorf.org) or mail (2100 S Pennsylvania St, Denver, CO 80210)
4. Application finalists will be invited to meet with The Denver Waldorf School Diversity and Inclusivity Committee. All applicants will be notified of their application status via mail or email.
