

Eurythmist - PT/FT/Block teaching

The Denver Waldorf School is seeking a Eurythmist who is either full time, part time, or who can offer multiple extended teaching blocks throughout the year to multiple grade levels. Our new Eurythmist will be familiar with teaching a variety of grades and be comfortable with teaching medium to large size classes of students in first grade through high school.

The ideal candidate for this position will be a qualified, and skilled Eurythmist with a strong love of working with children, experience in teaching Eurythmy, and the ability to work well in a collegial setting. The Denver Waldorf School offers an accompanist for Eurythmy classes.

Application Process

If you are interested in applying, please send a cover letter and resume with contact information for three personal references to the Hiring Committee, The Denver Waldorf School, 2100 S. Pennsylvania Street, Denver, CO, 80210, or e-mail to careers@denverwaldorf.org. Please indicate salary requirements and whether you are interested in PT/FT or block teaching.
