5th grade- 8th grade with Caitlin Plante	<input type="checkbox"/>
9th grade-12th grade with Tiffany Tyson	<input type="checkbox"/>

Location: Denver Waldorf School

Payment: $105 cash or check paid to Denver Waldorf School. Payment can be left in the kiosk.

Creative writing lab (multi-genre):

In this casual workshop format, Tiffany Quay Tyson, an accomplished fiction writer and Lighthouse instructor, and Caitlin Plante, a Lighthouse instructor and tutor to current DWS students will come once a week to offer a lesson on an element of writing, or a hands-on activity or game. The focus is on making writing fun and empowering students through storytelling, as well as building writing skills. Sample activities and lessons might include creating crazy characters and using them in a story, exploring how to make villains more interesting, creating a new world for a story and drawing a map of your world, blackout poetry, cut and paste poetry, writing a scene for a new TV show, making up new words, and freewriting.

Other details: Students will meet the Lighthouse staff in the high School scheduled Tuesdays at 3:30. Room TBD. Any questions can be directed to Dawn Archer, enrichment director 303-777-0531 x 113 or enrichment@denverwaldorf.org
