Wanted: High School Girls' Volleyball Coach!

The Denver Waldorf School is a friendly and lively urban preK—12 school with 65 students in the high school. Our sports program has been alive and well since 2001 and we are a member of the Colorado High School Athletic Association. Our high school volleyball team is fed by a winning middle school volleyball program and supported strongly by the DWS community. We have won a number of trophies over the years and have made it as far as regionals six times. We are looking for an enthusiastic and experienced volleyball coach to work with our hard working girls for the 2016-17 volleyball season beginning in August. Go Spartans!

Job Description:

The coach will be responsible for day-to-day activities with the student athletes through the duration of the contract (start and finish dates based upon schedule and team activities). This includes providing practice plans and managing practices/games throughout the season. The coach will provide leadership for student athletes while developing skills and fundamentals. The coach will be willing to participate in team camps and other team building activities and in any coaching development course/classes if asked by the school.

Practices will be held at The Denver Waldorf School, 2100 S. Pennsylvania St., Denver, CO, 80210. Games are held at various locations. Coaches will provide own transportation.

Requirements:

Experience playing high school and college volleyball. Prior had coaching experience at club or high school level is preferred. Motor Vehicle Record must meet school safety standards. Must pass criminal background check.

Salary:

This is a stipend position beginning at $2,500 per contract.

Benefits:

This position does not include benefits.

How to Apply:

If you are interested please send your resume with contact information for three personal references to Personnel Committee, The Denver Waldorf School, 2100 S. Pennsylvania St., Denver, CO, 80210 or email Athletic Director Michael Quinn at athletics@denverwaldorf.org.

Contact: Athletic Director Michael Quinn, athletics@denverwaldorf.org.

The Denver Waldorf School does not discriminate in any of its programs, procedures, or practices on the basis of age, color, disability, marital status, national or ethnic origin, political affiliation, race, religion, gender, sexual orientation, military service, or other protected status.