

Pedagogical Director

The Denver Waldorf School (DWS) is seeking a qualified candidate for the position of Pedagogical Director. The Pedagogical Director works closely to support both teachers and students while working collaboratively to support the administrative efforts to ensure the delivery of a high quality Waldorf education to all students in this pre-K through Grade 12 school. The Pedagogical Director helps to set the Pedagogical vision of the school and leads the faculty in upholding agreements and honoring decisions made through a consensus process. We are looking for a candidate who is willing to make a minimum 5 year commitment in this integral role.

The Pedagogical Director serves as an ambassador of the school for all pedagogically related activity. The Denver Waldorf School is looking for someone who has a demonstrated commitment to collaboration, objectivity, and consensus building, as well as, conflict resolution. The ideal candidate will be open, welcoming, and engaging to others and lead by active involvement in the life of the school.

The Pedagogical Director is an integral part of the day-to-day operations of the school and is a vital member or chair of multiple school committees, including The College of Teachers. Knowledge of Waldorf school philosophy and a commitment to anthroposophy is required.

Education and Skills

- Bachelor's Degree required
- 8+ years teaching experience in a Waldorf school
- Exceptional customer service and ability to respond promptly
- Success in working in a collaborative work environment
- Ability to self-manage in a fast paced environment
- Ability to think systematically and strategically
- Ability to be a visionary leader

The Denver Waldorf School

The Denver Waldorf School is an urban Waldorf school in the heart of Denver and close to the Rocky Mountains. The school was founded in 1974 and enrolls approximately 360 students in pre-K through Grade 12. The school is an accredited member of the Association of Waldorf Schools of North America (AWSNA) and the Association of Colorado Independent Schools (ACIS). The school's mission is to awaken and inspire students' critical thinking, emotional intelligence, and artistic expression, preparing them to bring relevant contributions to the world. We are committed to recognizing and developing the whole human being in an inclusive and engaging environment.

To apply, please send a letter of interest including salary expectations, resume, and three references to: HR Manager, The Denver Waldorf School, 2100 S. Pennsylvania Street, Denver, CO 80210 or email careers@denverwaldorf.org. A more detailed job description can be sent upon request.